MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

FROM: Daniel J. Bryant dyb
Assistant Attorney General

SUBJECT: Weekly Report for November 12 - November 23, 2001

THIS WEEK

- Coordination Between Federal and State Law Enforcement: The DEA, FBI, INS, and Office of Justice Programs testified on November 13 at a joint hearing before the House Government Reform Subcommittee on Government Efficiency, Financial Management, and Intergovernmental Relations; Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, Drug Policy and Human Resources; and Subcommittee on National Security, Veterans Affairs and International Relations on how effectively Federal, State and local law enforcement agencies are working together, i.e. information sharing. (Bernhardt, Coughlin, D. Burton)
- INS Policies Related to Illegal Entry: On November 14th, Mike Pearson, Executive Associate Commissioner for Field Operations, will testify before the Senate Governmental Affairs Subcommittee on Investigations regarding the INS policies on the handling of illegal entry cases. (D.Burton)
- Implementing Legislation (H.R. 3275): On November 14, the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Crime will hold a hearing on H.R. 3275, a bill to Implement the International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings and the International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism. Assistant Attorney General Chertoff will represent the Department on this legislation. Immediately after the hearing, the Subcommittee will mark-up both H.R. 3275 and H.R. 3209, the Anti-Hoax Act. (Daley)

LAST WEEK

- Presidential Records Act: On November 6, Acting Assistant Attorney General Ed Whelan from the Office of Legal Counsel testified before the House Government Reform Subcommittee on Government Efficiency, Financial Management and Intergovernmental Relations about the Presidential Records Act. John Carlin, Archivist of the United States, also testified with several private sector witnesses. Mr. Whelan explained that the President's recent Executive Order provides procedural guidance but does not alter any substantive provisions of the Presidential Records Act, which was a significant Subcommittee concern. (F. Burton)

- Intelligence Authorization Act for FY 2002: The Senate version passed on November 8; the House version was passed a few weeks ago. At the request of House Intelligence Committee staff, additional provisions to supplement or make technical fixes to provisions of the USA-Patriot Act are in OMB clearance for possible inclusion during conference on the final legislation. Pre-conference discussions are underway, and a conference on the bill likely will occur this week or next. (Walter)
- Nominations: On November 6, the Senate Judiciary Committee held a hearing on the nomination of Thomas L. Sansonetti, to be Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division. Also on November 6, the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee held a hearing on the nomination of Odessa F. Vincent, to be an Associate Judge of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia and the nomination has been placed on the Committee's agenda for the markup on November 14.

The nomination of Larry Hicks, to be a United States District Judge for the District of Nevada, was confirmed by the Senate on November 5.
